THE K. T. CONCLAVE.

Many Knights Coming.

Railroad Rate From Any Point in the State Will be

One Fare for the Round Trip.

Several of the Commanderies of Knights Templar out in the State, who have not as yet engaged quarters for the annual convocation, which meets in this city on the 18th of May, are beginning to bestir themselves and in the next few days will let it be known how many swords they will have in the line of parade.

Ryan Commandery, No. 17, of Danville, which has recently moved into its handsome new quarters, will send not less than twenty-five Knights and possibly more, with many ladies.

Webb Commandery, No. 2, of Lexington, on Tuesday evening, elected Sir W. T. Browning, the well-known Commercial Evangelist, its Eminent Commander for this year, and as Tom is a first class hustler, we may expect this venerable body of Templars to be well represented in the parade.

Carlisle Commandery, U. D., the "baby," which was organized October 5th, with nine members, now has twenty-three Sir Knights, most of whom will be in line on the 18th of May, one of whom will be Sir Wyatt M. Inskoe, the Division Deputy Internal Revenue Collector, so well known in this city.

The railroads, all over the State, have made a rate of one fare for the round trip to this city, which should insure a large attendance.

ANOTHER TRAVESTY ON JUSTICE.

On Tuesday last Hon. Jas. A. Violett had his second trial for shooting at Mr. Wingate Thompson, some two years ago.

In the first trial Mr. Violett was given $500 fine and six months in jail. The Court of Appeals unanimously reversed the case and plainly indicated that they thought the indictment should either be dismissed or a nominal fine assessed.

Upon the second trial, almost the identical arrangements were made, and the case was so flimsy that it was submitted without argument by both sides, it being universally expected that the jury would acquit or assess a nominal fine.

But, to the surprise of almost everybody, the jury again assessed a fine of $250 and placed the imprisonment at the same (six months) as before—the only difference being in the extent of the fine.

An appeal was at once taken by Col. J. A. Scott and Mr. John W. Rodman, Mr. Violett's attorneys.

This is denominated justice, when, repeatedly, men have been killed and not a thing done with their murderers—here a man simply shot at another, and lo! he catches it square between the eyes. O! tempora! O! mores!

Cured

At 70 of Heart Disease Contracted

During Civil War—Veteran Grateful.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Effected Cure.

Heart disease is curable, but in people of advanced age it does not readily lend itself to ordinary treatment. There is, however, hope for all sufferers in Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, which we know from watching hundreds of cases and from the letters of grateful sufferers, will cure where all else has failed. It is not only a wonderful cure for weak and diseased hearts, but it is a blood tonic, a regulator of the heart's action and the most effective treatment ever formulated for improving the circulation of the blood.

"During the Civil War I contracted heart disease, and in 1896, while living in the grand old town of Lexington, Va., I grew so much worse, I left there with my wife to visit my sister-in-law, Mrs. T. A. Kirby, at Roanoke, Va. While I said nothing to anyone I never expected to live to return to the dear old town. On reaching Mrs. Kirby's she insisted I should try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I procured a few bottles of it, also the Nerve and Tonic. After using one or two bottles, I could see no improvement, and I despaired of ever being better, but my faithful wife insisted on keeping it up, which I did. Improvement soon began in earnest and I took in all fifteen or sixteen bottles. I was restored to perfect health and while I am 70 years old, I am comparatively a boy. You see, I am a benefactor, and I cheerfully recommend Dr. Miles' Heart Cure to suffering humanity."—J. L. SLAUGHTER, Salem, Va.

BEAUTIFUL HOME WEDDING.

It was our good fortune to attend a beautiful home wedding, on Wednesday afternoon, at 1 o'clock.

The contracting parties were Mr. Ross A. McCallum, of Dayton, Ohio, and Miss Kathryn Juliett Dryden, youngest daughter of Editor John B. Dryden, Sr., Rev. Dr. J. McClusky Blaney, of the First Presbyterian Church, performing the solemn ceremony.

The affair was a very quiet home wedding, only a few intimate friends being present, outside the immediate family.

The groom comes highly recommended as a sterling and industrious young business man, who is making his way in the business world of his home city.

The bride is a pretty and deserving young lady—modest and sensible. For several years she has been an employe in the Roundabout-Call office, and has performed her duty in an admirable way. She is industrious, painstaking and domestic in all her tastes. She will make her young husband an admirable and loving helpmeet.

The wedding presents were numerous, very pretty and useful.

Shortly after the ceremony the happy pair left over the F. & C. Railway for Dayton, where Mr. McCallum has already fitted up a cozy home, and they went to housekeeping at once.

Our best wishes attend them. "May they live long and prosper."

Consumption

The only kind of consumption to fear is "neglected consumption."

People are learning that consumption is a curable disease. It is neglected consumption that is so often incurable.

At the faintest suspicion of consumption get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion and begin regular doses.

The use of Scott's Emulsion at once, has, in thousands of cases, turned the balance in favor of health.

Neglected consumption does not exist where Scott's Emulsion is.

Prompt use of Scott's Emulsion checks the disease while it can be checked.
